SMALL CHANGE.

Hard rain yesterday.
Fodder pulling has begun.
Watermelons are down to two for a nickel.

A fine shower fell here Thursday morning.

Mr. Collius' new residence makes a handsome appearance.

The superstructure of the new C.
P. church is being rapidly erected.

Pease & Co. have moved to the corner of Main and Jackson streets.

Just fast a little longer, and then you can buy meal at less than $1 15 per bushel. It is thought now corn will sell here at $1 per barrel.

That L. & N. coal agent has not yet put in his appearance here. Many people in Milan would give him large orders for coal if he would come.

The Porter Guards, of Memphis, passed here last Thursday on the C.,

St. L. & N. O. road, bound for Dubuque, to attend a prize drill. The boys were hopeful.

Senator Ishem G. Harris has announced a list of appointments to speak. He will be in Trenton on Monday, Sept. 4, and at Milan on Saturday the 9th. We expect to see a large crowd out on the occasion.

The Exchange was very pleasantly surprised last Thursday by the reception of an elegantly ornamented, delicious, large cake, accompanied with the compliments of Ernest Keileber, our city baker. The cake was as acceptable as it was unexpected, and Mr. K. has our hearty thanks for his kindness.

By reference to the card of L. L.
Warren & Co., in another column, it will be seen that Capt. M. M. Seay, of this city, has connected himself with them. He is a splendid salesman, and no doubt will add largely to the sales of that excellent house.

We wish all concerned a prosperous season's business.

The greenbackers met in Humboldt last Saturday and nominated

W. S. Hornsby for the legislature.
It is said only seventeen men were present. They are certainly wasting their time. In this county, "no greenbacker need apply" for office.

We did not learn the names of the gentlemen composing the convention.

The National Dowsy Association, of this city, is receiving phenomenal encouragement. Applications are pouring in by mail and telegraph, and one or two extra clerks are kept busy attending to the mailing of supplies and answering letters. The six-dollars-a-day feature captures crowds of them who contemplate marrying soon.

The Taylor Institute, Jackson, Tenn., is advertised in this paper.

This is a school under the management of careful and competent teachers, and we believe those of our readers who contemplate sending their children from home will do well to send there. The house is large, roomy and comfortable, and in the best neighborhood in the city.

The diversified contents of Demor-est's Magazine for September make this a highly entertaining number.

The lovers of the serial will find the continuation of the "Admiral's Ward" interesting; while those who prefer shorter stories cannot fail to be pleased with "Masco, the Match," and "Esther's Love Story." The various departments, including "Current Topics," "Fashion," "Household," and "Home Art and Home Comfort," contain much that is instructive and entertaining; while the illustrations are excellent; the oil picture, "A Soul to Heaven," being quite a work of art.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. L. McClellan has returned from an extended visit to Mississippi.
Hon. S. F. Wilson stopped here a few hours yesterday, en route to Bolivar, where he speaks to-day.

Mr. J. B. McKnight and Miss Josie Kidwell were married in Humboldt on Thursday night of last week.

Dr. Shackelford has announced himself as a candidate for congress.
We suppose he will run on the Beasley platform.

Misses Corinne Hilliard and Gertrude Douglass, of Huntingdon, are visiting Miss Sallie Blankinship.

They smiled on the Exchange force last Thursday.

Mr. W. M. Saunders, of the Fulton Index, called on us yesterday. He reports his paper prospering. Having recently bought out his rival, the Fultonian, he has a complete new office for sale cheap.

The genial countenance of Gran Burrow made his friends here glad last Thursday, after an absence of several months in Arkansas and the Indian Territory. He is greatly improved in health, we are glad to say.

Mr. M. Hop Johnson, traveling correspondent of the New York Herald, stopped over here a few hours Thursday, en route to Mississippi, where he goes with his family on a visit. The Exchange office was honored with a call and a partial promise of a return to the congressional convention on the 7th prox.

A Barbecue Picnic.

Our suggestion last week as to the propriety of a thanksgiving picnic seems to be taking the shape of neighborhood and family reunions, with barbecues, fruits, sweetmeats, etc.

We enjoyed a very pleasant and bountiful feast of this kind at the farm of Mr. John Shepherd, four miles east of here, last Wednesday. Between fifty and one hundred people were present. A small beef and a shote were barbecued, a long table was spread, and it was literally loaded with a great variety of tempting eat-ables—too tempting for this scribe to resist, for he has not been hungry since. It is a custom of Mr. S. to have an annual barbecue for his family and the numerous farm hands, and it is looked forward to with pleasure by all who have ever enjoyed them.

A few friends of the family were also present, and a delightful day was spent in the woods.

We hear of others preparing for similar feasts in different neighborhoods around town. All the working farmers are prosperous this year and we believe they will do themselves, their friends and their help much good by relaxing themselves and enjoying a day in the woods in this manner. We hope to hear of many such feasts.

DIED.

Mrs. Myra Roberts, of this city, died at the residence of Mr. Love, near Trenton, last Tuesday night, of consumption. She left here only a few days before, and her sudden death was a shock to her friends. She was a most excellent Christian woman. She was buried here last Thursday, after a funeral sermon at the Baptist church.

Mr. Newton Harris, of Gadsden, father of Dr. M. B. Harris, of this city, died at his residence last week, on his eighty-first birthday. He had arranged his affairs, both temporal and spiritual, and when his time came he died as peacefully as a child falling asleep.

RELIGIOUS NEWS.

Eleven persons were baptized in Pratt's pond, south of town, last Sunday, by Rev. J. E. Eoff. They were converts at the Baptist revival.

The revival at the Baptist church continues with interest, and is doing great good. There have been twenty conversions and twenty-one additions to the church. The new pastor, Mr.
Eoff, is doing a good work.

The Rev. J. W. Mitchell, of the Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church, South, has been visiting his father's family here during the past week.

He preached a good sermon at the Methodist church last Sunday night.

The First Boll.

Our little friend, Murat Guion, brought us the first open boll of cotton this season on last Thursday. It was grown on his mother's place, near town. He said there were open bolls there the first of the week.

The Silver Standard.

There is a firm in Savannah that are a sort of congress passing bills to regulate currency and exchange. Their first act of the season of 1882 was to make a $1 note good for a fifty dollar gold watch. Their next act was to make one dollar good for a sixty-five dollar sewing machine. This also became the law of the land. Their third, to take effect Oct. 1, is to make one dollar good for a splendid seventy-five dollar silver Tea Set, five pieces, latest style, and lovely. The way they do it is to give premium checks to each new subscriber of the Southern Musical Journal (Henry W.
Cleveland, editor), and then to give these treasures to the fortunate holder of the drawn number. The Journal is valuable alone. There is a picture of Mrs. Langtry, the "Jersey Lilly," in the August number; fine editorial and Miscellany, and the music is "The City Bells," the "Flossie Waltz," and "Pure as Snow." Send for a free specimen copy, or send your subscription at once to Ludden & Bates', Southern Music House, Savannah, Ga. Only $1 for the Journal and a ticket in the Silver Tea Set.

and instrumental Music in Odd Fellows' Hall, and solicit the liberal patronage of parents and Guardians.

tory prices, either for cash or on lected and furnished at publishers tune Pianos at reasonable figures, and guarantees the best work. Prices condition of instrument.

Clothing, Boots and shoes at 50 per cent. less than first cost. I have bought the Hamilton stock, and am going to sell them. Now, if you want bargains, come and see for yourself.
N. W. DESHONG.

To the Girls.

Stone & Clark have just received the biggest stock of Chewing Gum ever brought to Milan. They have an assorted lot of Taffy—White, Prize and other kinds. They have also just opened the Finest Candies in the city.
Go right along and take choice early.

Those who have or expect to have children, or the care of them, should call at W. H. Coley's Drug store and get a circular of Dr. MOFFETT'S TEETHINA (Teething Powders). It may be the means of saving their child's life.

Fresh Fruit the Year Round.

Read the endorsement of prominent county-officers in the advertisement of Messrs. Tatum, Sims & Co., Opelika, Ala., in this paper, headed, "Save your Fruit, and see the proof of their words."
